

INSTITUT
SIMONE DE BEAUVOIR INSTITUTE

USEFUL INFORMATION

April 6, 1995

NOTE: Most items in this Bulletin are from the mail we receive on a regular basis. We simply pass this information along to you for your interest.

EVENTS, CONFERENCES, JOBS, NEWS OF INTEREST

SDEB EVENTS

Congratulations to Dr. Chantal Maillé who recently obtained her tenure. Also, Institute Fellow Dr. Sally Cole received her tenure from Sociology and Anthropology; and former Fellow, Dr. Homa Hoodfar also received her tenure from Sociology and Anthropology.

Thursday, April 6 at 16:00: Nancy Iglesias, International Representative for the Federation of Cuban Women will speak at a public lecture on "Feminism in Cuba." This event will be held at the Institute's lounge.

Thursday, April 6, at 19:00: Beth Brant, Mohawk writer, Editor and Educator will give the keynote lecture on "Towards Integrative Teaching Methods" at the Institute's lounge.

Friday, April 7 at 9:30: A day-long workshop, organized by Dr. Kaarina Railo, on Integrative Teaching Methods" will be held at the Institute. The closing session will review the day's discussions.

April 11 at noon: Katharine Hodgkin will give a talk on "Writing out of the Labyrinth: Gender, Religion and Madness in Seventeenth-Century Autobiography" at the Institute's lounge.

Friday, April 21 at noon: (Please note time change from 9:30). The last in this series of Bio/Autobiography Workshops. Dr. Kailash Anand will speak on the topic "Tale of Two Women Mathematicians: One Canadian and One from Down Under." Dr. Judy Whitehead will speak on "Dr. M. Reddy: Nationalism and Gender in India." See Susan for the readings.

On Monday, April 3, Ruth Weiss Busch, senior lecturer at the University of Waikato School of Law was a guest lecturer at the Institute. Professor Busch spoke on the topic "Making a Difference: Feminist Initiatives in Domestic Violence Law."

EVENTS

Journey of the Dragon Boy

The Concordia Department of Theatre presents "The Journey of the Dragon," a play by Tannis Kowalchuk and Lora Schroeder on April 7, 8, and 9th at the F.C. Smith Auditorium, 7141 Sherbrooke St. W. Admission: $5 for adults; $2 for children. Call box office at 848-4737.

The Rez Sisters

Concordia's Department of Theatre present "The Rez Sisters" a play by Tomson Highway, directed by Elise Menard from March 31 to April 9th at the D.B. Clarke Theatre. For reservations: 848-4742.

Inteffar

The students and teaching team of Inteffar creative collective invite you to an exhibit of "hiv/aids: cultural, social and scientific aspects of the pandemic" on Saturday, April 8 at Stornaway Gallery, 1407 St-Alexandre (corner Ste-Catherine at Sam's).

Student Awards

April 13 is the deadline to nominate graduating students for the following awards: The Concordia Medal (for leadership); the Malone Medal (whose works exemplify the values of the university within the internal community); and the O'Brien Medal (whose work exemplify university values within the external community. Please see the "academic" board for details.

Jeffrey Sammons

New York University Professor Jeffrey Sammons has been invited by the Committee on the Status of Women to give a talk on Thursday, April 6 at Lonergan College at 19:30. Professor Sammons will speak on the topic "Affirmative Action in Historical Perspective: Its Past, Present and Future."

District Six Productions

District Sex Productions presents the first urban poets in a presentation of The Last Poets, featuring Umar Bin Hassan, at the Rialto Theatre on Easter Sunday, April 16. Call 285-2696 for times.

Yiddish Theatre

The Yiddish Theatre of the Saidye Bronfman Centre for the Arts announces that it's next presentation will be, "Sheindele," by Amnon Levy and Rami Dannon. The Saidye Bronfman production will be directed by Dora Wasserman. The play will run June 3 - 29, 1995. Please refer to the "events" board for complete information.

NFB

"Hands of History," directed by Christine Welsh and "Keepers of the Fire," directed by Loretta Todd, will be presented at the NFB at 1563 St-Denis from April 11-16. Admission charge.

CONFERENCES/COLLOQUES

The brochure for the Seventh Conference on Canadian Social Welfare Policy which will be held in Vancouver from June 25-28 has been posted on the "academic" board.

The programme for the 11th Conference of The Society for Menstrual Cycle Research "Broadening Our Vision: Class & Cultural Issues in Women's Health" which will be held June 20-24 at the Hôtel du Parc has been posted on the "academic" board.

A conference on "Bridging the Race and Gender Gap," organized by the Ruth Wynn Woodward Endowed Chair in Women's Studies at Simon Fraser University, will be held in Vancouver on Saturday, May 13 from 9:00 - 16:30. Registration form and further information is posted on the "academic" board.

CONFERENCES/COLLOQUES CONT.

Service à la famille Chinoise du Grand Montreal organise un colloque, "Unissons-nous pour un partenariat contre la violence conjugale en milieux ethnoculturels: à partir de l'expérience chinoise" mardi, le 24 avril à Holiday Inn, 99, Viger O. (métro Place d'Armes) Montréal. Voir le babillard "academic." Pour renseignements: 861-5244.

La coalition Canadienne des femmes en ingénierie sciences et technologie présente le 6e CCFIST "De succès en Succès", les 12 et 13 mai, 1994 à l'Université du Nouveau Brunswick. Voir le babillard "academic." Renseignements: (506) 453-4515.

CALL FOR PAPERS

Submissions are invited for a colloquium on "Gender, 'Race' and Science" to be held at Queen's University, October 12-15, 1995. The three and a half day colloquium is organized by the Dunning Trust Committee. Abstracts are due by April 21 because of restriction on SSHRC funding. Please refer to the "academic" board for the conference announcement.

NFB APPRENTICESHIP/SCHOLARSHIP

NFB's Studio D offers an Apprenticeship Program and a Scholarship Program for women's film and video project. The deadlines are June 23 for the Apprenticeship Programme and July 7 for the Scholarship programme. See the "jobs" board.

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The National Action Committee on the Status of Women invites nominations for the post of President. Nominations must be received by April 27. Sunera Thobani will not seek a second term. For information, call (416) 932-1718.

JOBS

York University, Department of Political Science, two limited positions at the lecturer or Assistant Professor level in International Relations, July 1, 1995. Apply before April 21.

York University, Department of Political Science, limited position at lecturer or Assistant Professor level in Canadian Politics, August 1, 1995. Apply before June 1.

UQAM, Département d'histoire, pose de professeur/e régulier/ère, ler juin. Faire parvenir votre c.v. avant le 28 avril.

Note: See "jobs" board for detailed job information.

NEWS OF INTEREST

Concordia's shuttle bus schedule will be altered from Wednesday, April 12 to May 5. Please check the bulletin boards for new times.

The Canadian Research Consortium on Southern Africa (CRCSA) has announced that a graduate summer school will be held at Carleton in July and August. The theme for the summer courses is on Southern Africa. Please refer to the bulletin board.

The Institute's Documentation Centre winters hours have been extended through the week of April 14th with the exception of Thursday, April 13 when the library will close at 16:00. Hours will be reduced after that time.

The University Concert Hall schedule for April has been posted on the "events" board.